

WASHINGTON—There has been no exaggeration about reports that the President is worried over the Japanese-Chinese conflict. In private talk with his State Department advisers he has indicated that he is more worried about this than about any other problems facing him—including the Supreme Court fight.

The two chief factors which cause worry are:

1. Fear that war between Japan and China will spread to the rest of the world. Should Russia come into the fray against her traditional enemy, Japan, then Japan's ally Germany would immediately follow, and the fat would be in the fire.

2. More immediate is necessity of the United States declaring an arms embargo against both Japan and China under the Neutrality Act. This would mean a tremendous handicap to China and none at all to Japan, for Japan has ample armament and war supplies while China has almost none.

Among the President's advisers it is felt that this advantage should not be thrown to Japan if there is any way to get around it. They consider China a traditional friend of the United States, while Japan's imperialistic ambitions and her plans for the division of China—to put it mildly—are not ideals which the United States wants to further.

That is why every telegram from American envoys in the Orient is sent to the White House immediately, and why Roosevelt gets a personal report from State Department experts at least twice a day.

Sol's Constitution

Tammany Congressman Sol Bloom, jocular, diamond-sporting ex-theatrical magnate, has been known in the past as the Man Who Made George Washington Famous. But now it looks as if he would become the Man Who Preserved the Constitution.

Sol is a shrewd operator. A few years ago he grabbed several hundred juicy plum positions through the George Washington Bicentennial Commission. There were other members on the Commission, but Sol ran the show and dished out the jobs. The Commission lasted several years and cost the taxpayers more than $500,000, including the cost of 5,000 plaster casts of The Father of His Country at $4.50 each, which Sol distributed.

Sol never forgot those lush days and last year revived them with a new idea, the U. S. Constitution Sequenential Commission.

As chairman of the Commission, Sol lobbied through Congress a $200,000 grant to finance preparations for celebrating in September, 1937, the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution. With this cozy nest-egg he swung into action and in a short time had rented ten offices, assembled a staff of 45 employees, all selected by himself. He even published under his personal copyright 250,000 copies of a booklet entitled "The Story of the Constitution."

To critics, Sol replied that the reason the pamphlet bore his name was to distinguish it from other books dealing with the Constitution and to prevent business firms from using it for advertising purposes.

Two hundred thousand dollars is a lot of money, but when Sol comes to the aid of the Constitution he spares no expense.

More Constitutional Money

Recently he informed Congress that the 1936 appropriation was about exhausted and that another $150,000 would be necessary to complete arrangements for the celebration. Far from being daunted by his request, the House went him as better.

On a motion by Representative Charles Kramer, ardent Los Angeles patriot, it added $125,000 to the $150,000 in order to supply every Senator and Congressman with 2,500 free copies of Sol's pamphlet.

The Senate, embroiled in the battle over the Supreme Court bill, hasn't acted on the matter yet, but Sol has high hopes of success.

"It can't refuse to commemorate the signing of our sacred Constitution," he says, "and unless we get this additional appropriation we can't proceed."

Note — Sol's plans contemplate two years of celebrating the ratification of the Constitution after the September commemoration is over. On the basis of his past record it is a good bet he will be back next year for another grant to "complete the work" of the Commission.

FIGHT ON SUPREME COURT ABANDONDED?

U. S. INFANTRY STANDS GUARD NEAR PEIPING

To Protect American Citizens in Sino-Jap Crisis

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The 15th United States infantry stood by under full war packs at Tientsin today to defend American citizens and interests if Sino-Japanese fighting is carried into that city.

While tension between Japan and China brought new fighting in the north China area, American business men at Tientsin organized a volunteer company, started to drill, and selected squads to build fortifications.

Taking a grave view of the situation, the United States consulate has asked that the company be formed to reinforce the regular army garrison.

Besides protecting American interests in the city, the 15th infantry was ordered to keep open the railroad to the eastern seaport of Chinwangtao.

What observers believed was a determination by Japanese to wipe out positions held by the 37th Chinese division in the Peiping area and a decision to attack other strategic points also led British, French and Italian authorities to prepare protection for their nationals.

The Japanese commander south of Peiping threatened "another and more deadly blow" against the Chinese.

Destroy Barracks

Japanese destroyed Chinese barracks with an artillery bombardment in a general attack yesterday against Wanpinghsien, just north of the Marco Polo bridge of Peiping.

Japanese answered reports that a number of civilians were killed in the bombardment by saying they had been warned "to evacuate the area."

Unconfirmed reports said Chinese forces attacking positions held by Japanese were riddled by machine gun fire.

The Japanese cabinet in Tokyo determined to enforce by guns what it declared was the surrender of North China officials to demands for extended Japanese influence in the area. The privy council approved the attack on Wanpinghsien.

At Peiping, Chinese sources said the Chinese military has agreed with the Japanese on a mutual withdrawal of troops from the Wanpinghsien area. The 37th division of the 29th Chinese army withdrew to Papaoshan today, leaving Wanpinghsien garrisoned by gendarmes.

JAPAN TO USE FORCE

Tokyo, July 21—(AP)—The cabinet determined today to enforce by arms the alleged surrender of North China officials to demands for extended Japanese influence in the crisis-ridden area.

At the same time the privy council in plenary session approved the attack launched yesterday by the Japanese army against the city of Wanpinghsien, a western suburb of Peiping, and commended the

Farmers, Held as Hostages by Escaped Texas Convicts, Seize Guns, Kill One, Wound Second

Boswell, Okla., July 1—(AP)—Fred Tindol, escaped Texas convict, was shot to death and his companion, Pete Traxler, Oklahoma outlaw, was wounded seriously today by two farmers they were holding as hostages.

While the automobile in which the desperadoes were attempting to escape a huge network of officers was parked on a highway eight miles northwest of here, the farmers grabbed the guns of their captors and shot them down. Traxler was shot above the right lung.

The hostages, Frank Trimmer and J. E. Benton, brought the out-

TWO AMERICAN WOMEN AT ODDS WITH JAPANESE

Claim to Have Been Kicked by Japanese Sentries

Peiping, July 21—(AP)—Two American women were at odds with the Japanese embassy today on whether Japanese soldiers kicked them or merely "pushed them on their way."

A Japanese embassy spokesman declared an investigation showed Japanese sentries did not use violence in forcing the women to leave the vicinity of the embassy yesterday.

He said the United States embassy presented its view of the situation this morning but made no protest.

The women, Mrs. Helen R. Jones, of Detroit and Miss Carol Lathrop of Washington, D. C., told United States officials that the guards kicked and shoved them.

Japanese sources, however, said the lieutenant in charge of the Japanese embassy guard said one of the women slipped on wet pavement and fell.

The lieutenant's view was that the women crossed the street and tried to look inside sandbag barricades. He stated that when sentries asked them to leave they refused and the sentries "merely pushed them on their way, doing no more than their duty in protecting Japanese military secrets."

Different Definition

When she heard the Japanese version of the incident Mrs. Jones declared:

"Their statement that no violence was used depends entirely on a definition of violence. If being kicked and shoved as we were isn't

BARKLEY NEW PARTY CHIEF FOR SENATE

Kentucky Senator is Victorious By a Single Vote

Washington, July 21—(AP)—Senator Barkley of Kentucky won the Democratic leadership of the Senate today in a close contest. The vote was 38 to 37.

Barkley, who served as assistant to the late leader—Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas—was chosen by the senate's 75 Democrats over Senator Harrison of Mississippi.

Barkley was supported by most friends of the Roosevelt court bill. Harrison had the backing of those against that measure.

The entire caucus took less than an hour. There were no nominations, but a quick secret ballot. Harrison then moved to make the selection unanimous.

Before the meeting broke up Barkley made a brief speech in which he promised to support Democratic policies and work for the nation and the party. He was cheered by his colleagues.

The Democrats then filed by and shook his hand, and the hand of Senator Harrison, who stood smiling at his side.

Speaking into a radio microphone, Barkley expressed his gratitude for the "honor accorded to me," and expressed confidence "we will all be able to work together."

See "Party Unity"

He said the friendly nature of the contest, close though it was, foreshadowed party unity.

Harrison, following Barkley on the radio, said he had just congratulated the victor and said "we are all going to work for harmony in the Democratic party."

Barkley gave out a brief statement, saying:

"My policy is to be representative of the administration as well as the senate in working out to the best of my ability the problems

Colleague's Vote

Washington, July 21—(AP)—The vote of his fellow Mississippian, Theodore G. Bilbo, possibly cost Pat Harrison the majority leadership of the Senate today.

Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky won over Harrison by a margin of only one vote, 38 to 37. Later Bilbo told newspapermen he voted for Barkley.

Had he cast his ballot for Harrison, Harrison would have won. Bilbo, who supported Harrison's opposition in the last election, said he voted for Barkley because when the late Majority Leader Robinson was being taxed for a Supreme Court appointment he had promised to support Barkley as Robinson's successor.

Senator Harrison was not being talked of at that time for the leadership, he said, "I was therefore committed to Barkley and could not throw him overboard."

Six Persons Injured in Auto Crash Near Prairieville Tuesday Evening

Dixon and Sterling Victims Taken to Two Hospitals

Six persons were seriously injured in an automobile accident at Prairieville Tuesday night about 8 o'clock, when cars from Sterling and Dixon collided, badly damaging both cars.

Three Sterling ladies, Mrs. Mary Boehm, Mrs. Mollie Sennett and Mrs. Winnie Kohl, were driving east on the Lincoln highway en route to Polo to attend a Women's Relief Corps meeting, and at Prairieville they decided to turn north, their auto colliding with a car driven by Fred Whittington, boss stevedore of the new school here, who was going west on the highway.

Mrs. Mabry sustained a broken shoulder. Her son was only slightly hurt. All were taken to the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital for treatment.

The three Sterling ladies were removed to the Sterling public hospital where their wounds were dressed. They suffered cuts and bruises and Mrs. Sennett sustained the fracture of both bones of her left leg.

ITALIANS PAY TRIBUTES TO DEAD INVENTOR

Rome, July 21—(AP)—Grief-stricken Marchesa Guglielmo Marconi knelt in private services beside the bier of her world-famous husband today as Rome prepared solemn last rites for the genius who invented wireless telegraphy.

An intimate mass for members of the inventor's family was said in the Royal Academy's Galatea room where Marconi's body lay in sombre state surrounded by double rows of black-shirted fascist guards.

As the Marchesa in deep mourning arrived at the Academy, throngs gathered along streets the funeral cortege was to pass on the way to state funeral services in the church of St. Mary of the Angels.

The inventor's widow was accompanied by her mother, Countess Bezzi Scali, and by her step-daughter, Gioia Marconi, the 17-year-old daughter of the inventor by a previous marriage.

The three women knelt near the blue-uniformed body lying on a pall of green leaves and flowers, quietly weeping during the ceremony.

Arrangements were made for Marconi's body to lie in state an additional day after the state funeral services in order that more may add their tribute to those expressed by thousands who have filed silently by the bier.

The body will lie in state tonight and tomorrow, and then will be borne by train to Bologna for burial Friday morning.

Silent Partner of President is Doing Lot of Talking Now

Washington, July 21—(AP)—"Cactus Jack" Garner, who calls himself President Roosevelt's silent partner, is doing a lot of talking this week—but it's all behind the scenes.

The vice president scarcely had unpacked his bags yesterday after a five-weeks Texas vacation when he became the center of negotiations for a court bill compromise.

One senator after another walked into his roomy Capitol office. Seven came in a body. They were reported to have told Garner they would vote to send the controversial bill back to the judiciary committee unless a settlement is effected soon.

A little later the bushy-eyed Texas went to the White House. Apparently he delivered the senators' message, although he had nothing to say afterward.

His own views on the court bill have not been disclosed. Before he left suddenly on his vacation in the middle of the congressional session, insiders said he had urged Roosevelt to yield in his advocacy of additional Supreme Court justices.

Story of Fish

Buffalo, N. Y., July 21—Two fishermen today claimed a 12 lb. sturgeon came up out of the depths of Lake Erie to snap at an outboard motor, missed his target and landed helplessly in their boat.

William L. Kirst and Albert Wild, trolling for pike, said their copper line snarled in the motor's propeller. They started to tilt the engine, they said, when the sturgeon came swirling up.

The fish missed the shining propeller blades, Kirst said, sailed clear of the water and plumped down in his lap. Both men jumped on it as it thrashed about in the boat and finally subdued it, they said.

"That's all there is to it," said Kirst. "Here's your fish without a hook mark on him, and now bring on your lie detector."

REBEL FORCES CONVERGING ON GOV'T. SALIENT

Seek To Trap Loyal Soldiers In Their Newly-Won Pocket

Madrid, July 21—(AP)—Insurgent forces, struggling to plug a hole gouged in their lines west of Madrid by Gen. Jose Miaja's offensive, surged on the government salient from three directions today.

Their massed drive wrested a strategic hill from Miaja's militiamen—"Peak 660" from which they dominated Villanueva de la Canada, a battle-scarred village about 15 miles west of Madrid and one of the early prizes of the government's two-week campaigns.

The government acknowledged the loss of the peak after three days of insurgent counter-attack but asserted it still held Valdemorilla and Villanueva del Pardillo, at the mouth of the "pocket" which Madrid's militiamen cut into the flank of the eight and one-half month old siege lines on the capital's western front.

Within the "pocket" the government still held Quiporna, Brunete and Villanueva de la Canada, east of which yesterday's struggle for "Peak 660" centered.

Miaja's salient extends southward and completion of its curving sweep back toward Madrid either would trap insurgent siege forces on the western fringe of the city or force their evacuation.

Rebels Could Turn Tables

On the other hand, a turning of the tables of "the battle for Madrid" would force Miaja's men to withdraw from the "pocket" or have the exit closed against them.

Thus, the insurgent strategy today was to subject the government salient to frontal attacks from the south toward Brunete. Flanking maneuvers were directed from the west toward Quiporna and Valdemorilla and from the east toward Villanueva del Pardillo to halve the salient or nip it at its base.

The slopes of "Peak 660" were turned into a proving ground for insurgent tanks and government tank defenses when Generalissimo Francisco Franco's troops charged again yesterday.

Large masses of insurgent infantry were preceded by numerous tanks which lumbered over the

DEFEAT FOR PRESIDENT IS SEEN IN NEWS

Compromise Bill to Eliminate Packing High Court

Washington, July 21—(AP)—Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) after a conference with Vice President Garner today, said opponents of the Roosevelt court bill would draft a compromise dealing only with the lower courts and submit it to the administration. Supreme Court enlargement would not be involved.

The significant conference between Garner and Wheeler took place in the Montana senator's office at the same time as Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the new Democratic senate leader, and Senator Harrison of Mississippi, his defeated opponent, were at the White House for luncheon with the president.

After his conference with Garner, Wheeler said he was going to call opponents of the court bill together to "see if we can work out a proposal" for reform in the lower courts, "and submit it to the administration for their consideration."

Garner's suggestion? He would not disclose the nature of his conference with Garner, but it appeared that the move to draft a new bill was made at the vice president's suggestion.

Earlier reports of a possible drastic modification of the administration's court measure spread among senators simultaneously with the election of Barkley to be the new Democratic leader.

Wheeler's statement was the first hint that the foes of the bill would submit an alternative for the presidential process.

The loss said, meanwhile, that administration leaders had agreed to lay aside the pending court bill until next week to give them a chance to work out another bill. Later, they said, it will be decided whether to send the administration bill back to the committee or make the substitution on the floor.

Supreme Court Out.

Wheeler told reporters flatly there was no doubt his group had enough votes to recommit the present bill. He served notice they would agree to no compromise which would increase the size of the Supreme Court.

The opposition leader said his group was willing to work out some reform legislation for the lower courts, to speed action and permit direct appeals to the Supreme Court in constitutional cases, but was opposed to "roving judges," or the proposed precursor to recommend their assignment.

Talk of Harmony.

Senate leaders, after discussing the situation at the White House late yesterday, smiled and talked of "harmony"—something that has been lacking during the long conflict.

Just before the conference seven Democratic senators—all but one of them uncommitted on the court bill—were reported to have told Garner they would vote to recommit the measure if a settlement could not be reached quickly.

Another hint of compromise was seen in the delay of Senator Wagner (D-N.Y.) in replying to the appeal from Governor Lehman of New York that he vote against the bill. Wagner was expected to issue his reply today.

Some opponents of the court bill claimed as they went into a cau-

AND THAT'S ONE OF THE LOOPHOLES

Representative Fish of the Roosevelt district in New York now has the question of income tax loopholes where it can be discussed without embarrassment to any ladies who might happen to be present. Robert Jackson, former internal revenue general counsel, now an assistant attorney general, wrote the congressional committee on tax evasion that Mrs. Roosevelt had consulted the treasury about a contract she made for speaking over the radio and was advised it would result in no gains to her that would be taxable. That transferred the issue from Mrs. Roosevelt to the treasury department, and drew a reply from Congressman Fish, as follows:

"I have the highest regard for the charitable impulses of Mrs. Roosevelt, but not for the utterly untenable, indefensible and illegal advice of Mr. Jackson. Mrs. Roosevelt earned the income by her radio speeches and directed where it should go. The law specifically requires that all income should be set forth and permits an allowance up to 15 percent for charity, whether assigned or not.

"If earned income can be diverted directly to charity without report for income tax purposes, then the DuPonts, Mellons, Rockefellers and Morgans can divert their income direct to selected charities and avoid payment of approximately 60 percent on surtaxes to the government."

Peevishness of the committee and its refusal to inspect the Roosevelt income tax returns indicate that finding loopholes by which revenue may escape was not the real purpose of the inquiry. They indicate that it was a personal and political matter, to arraign further some Republicans and Liberty Leaguers.

Representative Fish has shown the loophole, which, if left open, will let a lot of big game get away. If the committee were looking for a loophole, there it is. What is it going to do about it?

SOME NEW UNIVERSITY APPRAISALS

Authorities of the University of Illinois are disconcerted over the amount of money available as a result of appropriations by the general assembly and the veto of a bill providing $650,000, funds asked for buildings during the biennium.

"The university naturally is loath to take any action which will deprive any boy or girl of the state, who can meet the present requirements, from receiving a university education," said President Arthur Cuts Willard, in a bulletin issued from his office. "However, the trustees have discussed informally the following possibilities: 1. Increasing students' fees. 2. Raising the university's entrance requirements. 3. Suspending free scholarships, other than general assembly and county scholarships, over which the university has no control."

In this connection it is stated that there are 2000 free scholarships.

If the university is giving out that many scholarships, we should say that now is the time to make a new appraisal of this phase of management. When our private funds are cut off, and we all have had some practical experience in that line, we have found that it teaches us numerous things about our budgets and how we can cut down our expenses without really affecting the values of things we are getting out of life.

Schools had to do the same things. Everywhere they were inclined to resist, but they found that the standards could be maintained under new appraisals and they became resigned to it.

Perhaps the university has been pinched unnecessarily, and perhaps the public should have taken a greater interest in its affairs, but we all have come to take notice of the fact that nothing gets money more easily than the educational institutions that are maintained by public funds. We always vote in favor of the children, and, of course, everything is asked for in the name of the children.

One trouble for the university was that the general assembly appropriated about 12 million more dollars than it provided revenue for, and Governor Horner had to cut where he could.

In Illinois there is no such thing as an unbalanced budget, such as we have in Washington. In Washington, we have a way of financing by which a shortage of funds may be repaired by the secretary of the treasury issuing government obligations, taking them to the banks, and forcing the bankers to take them. Banks now are pretty much under the gun at Washington.

In Illinois, when the money is gone, there ain't no more."

THE CURSE?

"Can it be," questions the Washington correspondent of the Kansas City Star, "that the court measure had upon it the 'curse' prophesied by President Wilson, when he said:

"It is within the undoubted power of congress to overwhelm the opposition of the supreme court on any question by increasing the number of justices and refusing to confirm any appointments to the new places which do not promise to change the opinion of the court. But we do not think of such a violation of the spirit of the constitution as possible, simply because we share and contribute to that public opinion which makes such outrages upon constitutionality morally impossible by standing ready to curse them."

Can it be?

DAILY HEALTH

By Dr. Iago Goldston
PHYSICALLY FIT RABBITS: 1
The advice to keep physically fit is commonplace.If you ask, "Just how shall I keep physically fit?" the answer is likely to be phrased in physiologic and hygienic generalities, such as eat properly (with a more or less dated definition of what properly means), get as much fresh air as you can, exercise moderately, sleep enough hours, avoid contact with infection, etc.Much of this counsel, as well as much of the concept behind physical fitness, is necessarily rather vague. Both are based upon clinical experience rather than experimental evidence.To the subject of physical fitness and resistance to disease, Dr.
Arthur Locke of the Western Pennsylvania hospital has recently made an interesting contribution. This is based on ingenious experiments employing rabbits.First he divided his rabbits into three groups on the basis of their variation in physical fitness. Their respective physical fitness was established this way:Each animal was chilled by partial immersion in cold water, until its rectal temperature had been reduced to approximately 95 degrees Fahrenheit. The animal was then dried and was observed as to the time it required to return to normal temperature.The most efficient rabbits showed a rise of 3 degrees within 20 minutes. These were adjudged to be the most physically fit rabbits.
The animals requiring 40 minutes for a similar rise in temperature were rated as less fit, while those requiring as long as 125 minutes were placed in the third or lowest group.Rabbits were then selected from each of the three groups. These were injected intravenously with pneumonia germs. Studies were made on the time required for the pneumonia germs to disappear from the rabbits' blood, and their subsequent history was traced.The "best physically fit" rabbits cleared their blood of pneumonia organisms within 30 to 60 minutes.
Ninety-two per cent of these animals showed no fever, and recovered from the infection.The rabbits of the least physically fit group, however, were unable to free their blood from the injected pneumonia germs, and all died

Answer to Question No. 1

1. First, true love makes it seem natural and easy to "forsake all others;" second, makes constancy seem as natural as sunshine; and third, makes patience, sacrifice and consideration of the loved one as natural as breathing. Infatuation, first, sets up a wild passion for physical possession; second, makes it easy to transgress to relieve the tension; and, third, is unreasonable in its demands. A lover with com-

Answer to Question No. 3

3. Certainly. Millions of adults who never went to college—whichmay or may not give one a background of culture—and who were not reared in an atmosphere of culture, are nevertheless fast becoming thoroughly cultivated persons. Two things are essential—good manners and good English.
Anybody can learn both. And good manners includes modest—not expensive—but proper dress. Voice cultivation comes next in importance. Sometimes it is first. You can pretty nearly tell a person's real culture, even if out of sight, if you hear him or her speak. At least you know a person with a loud, or twangy or rasping or slangy voice is not cultured, even if he can recite all of Shakespeare and Einstein.
All these things one can acquire at any time of life.Tomorrow: Do people who "do

FARM BILL WITH CROP CONTROL PLAN PROPOSED

Washington, July 21. — (AP) — Chairman Jones (D-Tex.) of the House agriculture committee has proposed a new general farm bill embracing the "ever normal" granary and crop production control features.The bill, which Jones introduced when the House convened, would use the present soil conservation benefit payments and penalty processing taxes as machinery to effect crop control.It would give the secretary of agriculture authority to establish a marketing quota for all producers of such products as corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco and rice. Farmers who sold more than their quota would be denied soil conservation benefit payments, which last year totalled approximately $400,000,000.When the granary threatened to overflow, the secretary would have authority to establish processing taxes on the products of which there was an oversupply.The tax would be as follows: cotton, two cents a pound; wheat, 10 cents a bushel; rice, 10 cents a bushel, and 25 cents a hundred pounds on hogs when there was an over-supply of hogs.(Most of the corn crop is marketed as hogs)The measure contained many provisions of the proposed "agricultural adjustment act of 1937" sponsored by the American Farm Bureau federation and endorsed in principle by Agriculture Secretary Wallace.

Grover was shifted to the switch-

Cronk. For several days nothing happened and then the realization that his "pal" was gone and might never return seemed to dawn on Sylvester. Overcome by grief he sickened and became so ill that it was necessary to cancel the

Practice At Lowell Reveals Talent For the Team

Boy Scout Troop 89 will enter a strong swimming team in the annual swimming meet to be held at Rockville, Ill., on July 30, if first and second places mean anything.

In an inter-patrol meet held Tuesday evening at Lowell park beach, much evidence of an extra strong team was shown especially in the ranks of the Lone Wolf which won the meet with a total of 34 points. Close on their heels all during the contest the ever-swimming Scouts of the Black Bear patrol took second place with a total of 26 1/2 points while the tenderfoot patrol took third with twelve points.

Several Events
Included in the events were diving, four man relay race, surface diving, breast stroke, egg and spoon race, rescue work, back stroke and crawl stroke races. All during the entire meet, the two leading patrols fought it out for the lead. On a the winning patrol Joe Crawford

Ruggles and Ross showed well on the Silver Fox patrol with two firsts. On July 30, the troop will enter the district rally at Rockville and the troop is putting every effort forth to win the honor of entering their team in the finals at Rockford on August 11. All first or second places will receive awards at the Rockville meet.

Scouts entering the meet last night were Bob Edous, Joe Crawford, Bill Schuler, Billie Goff, Dean Ruggles, Bill Finch, Roger Ross, Ben Gilbert, Lloyd Gilbert and Garth Good. Several members of Troop 89 could not be present although the team will be intact for the Rockville meet. Scoutmaster Kenneth Abbott officiated at the meet at Lowell park.

Young Mr. Don Budge played himself a game of tennis, didn't he. . . . Looks like Johnny Broaca is all washed up with the Yankees. . . . Joe McCarthy says Johnny (who jumped the team) will never throw another ball for the Yankees. . . . So it may be Newark or points west for the bespeckled Yale graduate.

Giant flag chances have been hard hit with scrappy Dick Bartell, Gus Macuso and Harry Danning all on the shelf at the same time and the Cubs due day after tomorrow. . . . Danning is working with a bad ankle, however. . . . Down in Selma, Ala., the No. 1 ball player is not Dizzy Dean or Joe DiMaggio, but Rip Radcliffe of the White Sox. . . . Rip got his baseball start down there seven years ago and continued the good work by marrying a Selma gal. . . . Indiana's 1938 football schedule, just out, shows the Hoosiers open against Ohio State. . . . Ouch! . . . If little Henry Armstrong keeps on belting 'em out, who'll be left for him to fight?

Henry's fists may punch him right into the all-star card Mike Jacobs is lining up for September 17. . . . Barney Ross is scheduled to defend his welterweight title against Ceferino Garcia, but should Bobby Pacho beat Garcia in the Garden Thursday night, there'll be one one left for Barney to fight. . . . So Mike will try to pit Armstrong against Petey Sarron, the N. B. A. featherweight champion. . . . Overheard leaving the Polo Grounds after Sam Leslie of the Giants had unusually good day. . . . Typical Bronxite: "I told you that bum could hit. . . . He's only been in a slum." . . . The Giants finally got Joe Medwick out. . . . The Cardinal star went hitless in four times at bat the other day.

You can look for Tommy Farr to furnish a lot of good newspaper copy before he leaves these shores, either under his own power or on a stretcher. . . . That guy's a card. . . . Means business, too. . . . When the scribes asked him what his weight was, Tommy replied: "Fourteen stone, twelve, gents (208 pounds to you lugs) and not of hit?" . . . Furr is the first British heavy to invade the United States since good old "Phainting Phil" Scott, who spent most of his stay in this country flat on his back counting the stars. . . . What makes us suspicious of him is he already has tenth-inning single scored run that beat Red Sox 10-9. . . . Frank Makosky and Tony Lazzeri, ankees—Makosky's two-hit, Lazzeri, Yankee relief pitching saved 10-inning opener of doubleheader, 5-4; latter drove in four runs with double and single in 9-6 trimming of Browns in highcap.

doped out how he's going to beat Louis from watching fight pictures. . . . Jim Braddock can tell him how that works out.

Hirsch Jacobs, New York's champion horse trainer, thinks he's slipping. . . . This year his horses have won only 92 races. . . . A year ago today he had accounted for 105. . . . Larry French, veteran Cub southpaw, is superstitious and will not discuss his team's pennant chances. . . . "We'll be lucky to finish in the first division," he always says. . . . Oh yeah? . . . Willis Sharpe Kilmer will toss 67 yearlings into the Saratoga sales ring beginning August 4. . . . Jim Coffroth, famous fight promoter of another day, is visiting here and can't get over some of the guarantees Mike Jacobs is offering fighters. . . . The biggest house he ever had was $60,000, attached by one of Jim Jeffries' matches. . . . Jacobs thinks nothing of tripling that figure if he wants a fighter badly enough.

Washington, July 21—(AP)—President Roosevelt told reporters in view of the fact that the water-money hunting Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan, in the South Pacific.

He said the cost of operating ships and airplanes went on, no matter what duty was assigned to them.

HARNESS HORSE DEVOTEES VIEW NEW PROSPECTS

Trying To Get Line On Hambletonian Possibilities

Old Orchard Beach, Me., July 21.—(AP)—Harness horse devotees flocked here today to get a line on Hambletonian prospects by watching the $8,800 National Stake for three-year-old trotters.

High-spotters of the grand circuit's first week of two here, the stake brought to the post a field including W. H. Strang's Twilight Song, winter-book favorite for the Goshen classic, W. M. Reynolds' Schnapps, the favorite's most persistent competitor this season, and Shirley Hanover, also ranked high in winter betting.

Scoville, bay colt from the Reynolds stables at Winston-Salem, N. C., won the two-year-old National Trotting Stake yesterday with a best time of 2:06 1/4 in the second heat. The stake paid a $3,421.58 purse.

Calumet Evelyn, owned by McCullum Brothers, Ogdensburg, N. Y., turned in the best mile of the day, 2:01 1/4, winning the first heat of the first division, $1,000 Pine Tree Trot, but first money went to Angel Child, Dr. A. O. Taylors bay mare.

Hornsby Out

St. Louis, July 21—(AP)—Donald L. Barnes, president of the St. Louis Browns, announced today that Manager Rogers Hornsby had been relieved of his duties effective today.

Barnes said the action was "taken for the good of the Browns."

The president of the American League Baseball Club said Hornsby's contract, which ran through the 1938 season, was so written it could be "broken at the discretion of the club."

Jim Bottomley, coach and reserve first baseman, was named acting manager.

Hornsby could not be reached immediately for comment.

American Aviator Freed by Russians

Moscow, July 21—(AP)—Clyde Pangborn, American aviator, planned to fly here today from Veliikii Iliki where he had been held by Soviet authorities for two days.

Pangborn entered Russia without a visa and was immediately placed in detention at the airport near the Latvian frontier. His companion, Congressman William I. Sivovich, of New York, went on to Moscow and obtained the necessary visa from the foreign office.

Walton Continues Winning Ways By Beating Mendota

Walton defeated Mendota's baseball nine 10 to 3, with the Waltonites' pitcher Hoffman striking out seven opposing batsmen.

Plans for Federal Secondary Roads Sent to Capital

Springfield, Ill., July 21—(AP)—As the first step toward construction of federal secondary roads, Governor Horner prepared today to forward to Washington a $2,095,520 program for 1937, with the cost to be evenly divided between the state and federal governments.

New legislation provides for a 10,000-mile federal secondary road system in Illinois.

Highway officials said that in the past the state has constructed 760 miles of secondary roads, with another 4342 miles built by counties. The Illinois road inventory also showed 10,231 of primary roads, including the federal aid and state bond issue routes, and approximately 75,000 miles of unimproved roads.

STORIES IN STAMPS BY I. S. KLEIN

CHIEF GUARDIAN OF MAN

AN Italian farmer's bull, in 492, wandered from the field. After searching all day, the farmer found the animal lying in a cave, on Monte Gargano, near Manfredonia, with an arrow in its side. The farmer attempted to withdraw the weapon, and it flew out and struck him. Awed rescuers sought a priest's advice. That night a vision of St. Michael, the archangel, appeared before the priest and told him it was he who had wounded the bull and the farmer, for they had intruded in his cave. To satisfy the angel, the peasants built a church at this spot. That was the first of the St. Michael churches that now number in the thousands throughout the world. In these, on Michaelmas Day, Sept. 29, St. Michael is venerated as chief messenger of God and chief guardian of man.

GRANT BEATEN BUT DAVIS CUP TEAM GOES ON U.S. In Challenge Round Against the British Team

Wimbledon, Eng., July 21.—(AP)—While the cheers rolled out over Wimbledon's storied courts for Don Budge, the man who had achieved the impossible, Bryan Grant, the atom from Atlanta, sat sadly in the shadows. He had suffered the most crushing defeat of his career.

Budge had beaten Baron Gottfried von Cramm, 6-8, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2, 8-6, to win the inter-zone final for the United States Davis Cup team and send it into the challenge round against England with a fine chance of winning and returning the cup to America for the first time since 1927. It was a gallant, courageously fought effort for both Budge and von Cramm.

But Grant had lost to Henkel, 7-5, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4.

For Bitty it was the big chance. In past years, when he had not been chosen for the team, the little man with the knobby legs had made vociferous complaint to the powers that be on the tennis Olympus. Chosen at last he went abroad with high hopes but dropped both his matches and put upon Budge and Gene Mako the full burden of staving off the German bid for a shot at the cup.

Parker Waiting
The defeats, first by von Cramm and then by Henkel, may mean more than just the loss of two matches for Bitty. Fresh and confident, Frankie Parker, of Milwaukee, waits on the sidelines for a chance at Davis Cup play. Walter L. Pate, non-playing captain of the American team, may pick him for the second singles job against England and send Grant to the side-lines.

Grant was disheartened by his defeat—so much so that he moaned "I turned yellow" and talked of quitting.

With Budge unquestionably the world's top amateur as a result of his victory yesterday, America's strategy in the challenge round is simple. As long as the red-head

WHITE SOX AND TIGERS CHASE FLEET YANKS

Don't Give Up Trying To Overtake Loop Leaders

BY BILL BONI

Associated Press Sports Writer

Trying to catch the galloping Yankees these days is about as hopeful a task as trying to keep up with Gar Wood in a one-lung outboard. But you can't rule the White Sox or the Tigers off the track for trying, and both of them are trying.

The Sox, probably inspired by the promising recovery of Manager Jimmy Dykes' big black clogs, have won six in a row to maintain their place as runners-up to the champions, now six and a half games in front after drubbing the Browns in both ends of a double-header yesterday.

The Tigers, encouraged by the promising recovery of Manager Mickey Cochrane, who for the first time since his injury put on a uniform during his team's morning workout yesterday, have won five straight since handing the Yanks the lone set-back of their current road trip.

Easy Pickings

Both have been having fairly easy pickings the last few days. The Sox caught first the Red Sox and now the Senators in the throes of a losing streak, making it ten defeats in a row for the Nats yesterday with a 4-3 triumph in ten innings. Thornton Lee, the big southpaw who could win only three games for the Indians last season but has been getting coaching from Muddy Ruel since coming to Chicago, gave up ten hits but fanned eight in hanging up his fifth triumph.

The Red Sox aren't proving too tough for the Tigers, either. The Hub crew was up in second place last week, but has hit the skids again, that ten-inning, 10-9 licking by Detroit being its fifth in a row.

Even the fact that Jimmy Fox chimed in with two homers, his nineteenth and twentieth, and that Colonel Mills and Eric McNair came up with one each could not save the Sox. Al Thomas, working only one inning as a relief pitcher for the second straight day, lost his second straight decision, while Roxie Lawson, who hurled only one heat for the Bengals, gained credit for his twelfth victory of the year.

Virus Affected Yanks

The extra-inning virus even affected the Yanks, who won the opener from the Browns in the tenth, 5-4, then belted four St. Louis flingers for eleven hits to win the nightcap, 9-6. Joe DiMaggio's 25th homer, with two on, was the big blow in the first game but shared importance with Tom Henrich's peg from right field that completed a double play after the Browns got three men on with only one out in the tenth.

The other American league game saw George Castner go the route while his fellow Athletics bagged fifteen hits off four Cleveland pitchers to win, 7-5.

The Giants, climbing back to within half a game of the reined-out Cubs, and the Dodgers, recovering from four straight trummings by Chicago, also needed ten innings to win. Cliff Melton held the Reds to five hits as the Terrymen copped, 4-3, for their eighteenth victory by a one-run margin against nine defeats, and Max Butcher tamed the Pirates with eight safeties to give Brooklyn a 2-1 decision.

The Cardinals, striking veteran Guy Bush on one of his better afternoons, threw in a few misplays of their own and bowed to the Bees, 5-3.

Plum Hollow Stag Party Tickets Going Rapidly; Climaxes Club Season

Begins Promptly At 1:30 P. M. Thursday With Matches

Plum Hollow's stag party is expected to draw a larger number of patrons than ever before. Tickets were being sold rapidly today by members helping to insure the success of the annual party which begins at 1:30 P. M. tomorrow.

The afternoon will be spent playing golf and prizes will be awarded for low score for score against bogey and for winners of the various syndicates. In the evening putting, driving and approaching contests will be held off tees and greens to be determined later. Last year the putting and approaching contests were held on No. 2 link, and the driving contest on No. 7 tee.

To Keep Golfers Filled.
Refreshments consisting of sauerkraut, pork and sausages will keep the golfers' stomachs well-filled.

Plum Hollow's tricky hazard, its dog-legs and its exhausting hills will make it necessary for the gastronomic fuel to be ample and sufficient if the golfing fraternity is to negotiate the course with any kind of satisfactory score.

Ted, favored by plenteous rain, and not too much sun, has groomed the course into carpet smoothness, and the fairways are fast yet easy on the feet. The greens are in as good condition as they ever have been.

The party climaxes Plum Hollow's formal season. Next Sunday the second round of the city mid-summer open golf tournament will be played at the links, this round consisting of eighteen more holes. A return engagement with Walnut will close Plum Hollow's regular schedule of matches, Sunday, August 15.

OGLE-CARROLL BASEBALL TILT TO BE DECISIVE

Winning Farm Bureau Nine Will Journey To State Meet

Ogle county's farm bureau baseball team will play the Carroll county team at the Oregon fair grounds this week Saturday, July 24, at 2 o'clock. This will be a hard fought game and a good one to see because both teams are trying desperately for the privilege of going on in the state tournament to the finals at Urbana and this game will be a deciding factor.

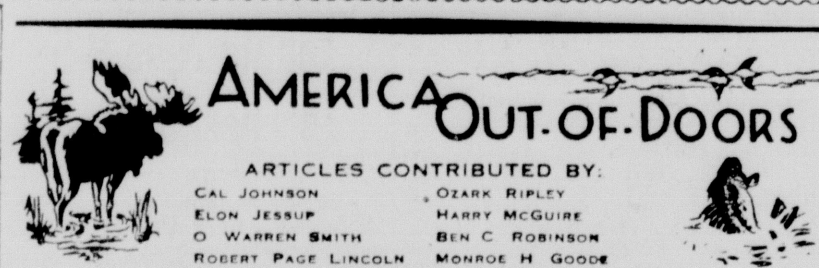

The Ogle team has its fighting spirit up to a high pitch following a poor start in the series with 2 defeats by small margins. Last Saturday Ogle county won over Jo Daviess by score of 11 to 6 thus tying the score between these 2 counties. Carroll and Jo Daviess have already been tied in previous games. If Ogle county wins the games this week as they confidently expect to do, Ogle and Carroll will be tied and three ties will have to be played off in order to determine the district winner. Some who have studied the games claim that Ogle has superior team and they are expecting Ogle to win Saturday. They need the support of the Ogle county folks and are hoping to have a good backing at the game next Saturday.

The team is composed of the best ball players in the Ogle county farm bureau including Winton Frey, Polo; John, George and Dick Bonno, Monroe Center; Edward, Nicholas and John McGrath of Woosung; Lawrence and Howard Trei, Forreston; Lloyd Link, Forreston; Merlyn, Gibbs, Stillman Valley; Eldon Coffman, Polo; Irvin Vietmeier, Forreston, Charles Rasmussen, Oregon; Lee Deets, Polo; Donald Stonebraker, Mt. Morris; Ray Jolly, Davis Junction. J. B. Sturtevant, Polo, is manager of the team.

Walton, Maytown To Clash In Very Important Game

In one of the most important games of the Illinois State League, Walton will engage Maytown at 2:30 P. M. Sunday in Walton.

Walton's battery will be Pull catcher and Hoffman pitcher. Maytown's probable battery will be Manucci pitcher and Perry catcher.

THE YOUNGSTER'S TACKLE KIT

By Ozark Ripley

There is nothing which will please the boy or girl with a yen for fishing more than a tackle kit. It should go with every rod, and be regarded as almost indispensable. The tackle box is a solution for the many fishing worries of both the boy and his dad, at home and on the trip.

If the young angler has not a tackle box his angling possessions when at home are not only anyone's, but even on the stream dad's and the boy's fishing is interrupted by the reaching into the contents of one tackle box. Dad wants the very one the boy wants, and the opposite obtains just as frequently. Furthermore, in passing the tackle box back and forth in a boat, everything in the box often spills out, and also occasionally a high priced to the deepest parts of the river kit with expensive lures finds it way when someone blunders and lets it fall overboard.

The boy or girl who likes fishing will appreciate one of the present Mothers will react in the same date, cheap sturdy tackle boxes, manner, for no longer will hooks be found in the carpets, curtains and pockets of clothes, but instead in the neatly arranged place for them.

A dollar will buy a splendid tackle kit for a youngster. There are compartments in it for plugs, spoons, flies, lines and reels, as well as for loose and snelled hooks, sinkers, swivels, and casting leaders. A boy worships one as much as a madame does her case of jewels, in fact, more so. After the youngsters becomes the possessor of a tackle kit no longer is he an addict to sweets of the corner store. On the contrary, instead of spending his allowance, no matter how small the sum, for things which will please the fish, he will invest in perhaps in fish strings, a new reel, or anything which he thinks ought to be in his tackle box.

Girls are the same way when they take to angling. Heaps of them do in these times. They make just as good fly and bait casters as boys. In fact, once when I was camped on a northern lake, I was attracted by the wonderful casting technique of what I thought was a young man who was after bass with a fly rod and a cork bodied bug. No one could do other than admire the young angler's effort, so much did the proper pickup and timing of every movement intrigue me that I paddled close to see more of the mastery of the youthful fisherman. I felt an exceedingly happy sensation when I approached the figure in blue overalls. There was a wedding ring on the shapely finger of the left hand and the boyish bob had added in deceiving me. Gee, how that gal could cast and catch fish.

GREATEST SMALL BORE RIFLE MEET AT CAMP GRANT

Matches Will Be Held July 23-25, May Draw 600

Washington, D. C., July 21.—The middlewest's greatest small bore rifle and pistol tournament, the U. S. Grant Memorial Matches to be staged July 23 to 25 on the old Camp Grant range just south of Rockford, Ill., is expected to attract some five to six hundred of the midwest's finest shots. This tournament will equal in size the famous Eastern Open Matches, fired over the Fourth of July weekend at Camp Ritchie, Md., and will rank second in size and importance in the nation only to the annual National Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio.

The concentration of over eight hundred rifle and pistol clubs within the area by this sectional meet indicates a wide representation on the part of the shooting fraternity. Rifleman, in the course of the three day program will fire over 75,000 rounds of ammunition in the thirteen events scheduled, while pistol shooters will fire close to 50,000 rounds.

The nation's top ranking woman rifle shot, Minnie McCoy of Akron, Ohio, with her team mate, Flossie Anson also of Akron, will compete in all of the rifle events. Homer Jacobs, the Ohio state champion, fresh from his victory in the eastern open matches at Camp Ritchie, Marshall Grosskopf of Marion, Wis., the Wisconsin state champ and the nation's fifth ranking star; Fred Johansen, many times Illinois state champion; two former national champs, both of Chicago, E. L. Lord, the 1934 winner, and Bradford Wiles, the 1929 champion, and a host of other stars will compete. Entries from over ten states have already been received, with the shoot nearly a week away.

The matches have been set up on the same plan as the national matches which will follow in just one month. They are officially registered by the National Rifle Association, the government body of the sport, and the statistical office will be named by a group of N. R. A. staff officials. Major Francis W. Parker, Jr., of Chicago who will be in charge of the twelve hundred small bore shooters at the national matches, will serve in a similar capacity at Camp Grant. Many of his range officers will also be assigned to attend the national events. Lester F. Stewart, president of the Illinois State Rifle Association, will serve as chief executive officer.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

THE DINOSAURS, ONCE RULERS OF THE EARTH, HAD SOME CHARACTERISTICS COMMON TO BIRDS, LIZARDS AND ALLIGATORS, BUT THEY HAVE NO NEAR BLOOD RELATIVES LIVING TODAY.

CARBON IS FOUND IN NATURE IN MORE THAN 100,000 COMBINATIONS.

MOST OF THE TREE GIRDING DAMAGE ATTRIBUTED TO RABBITS, IS DONE BY MICE.

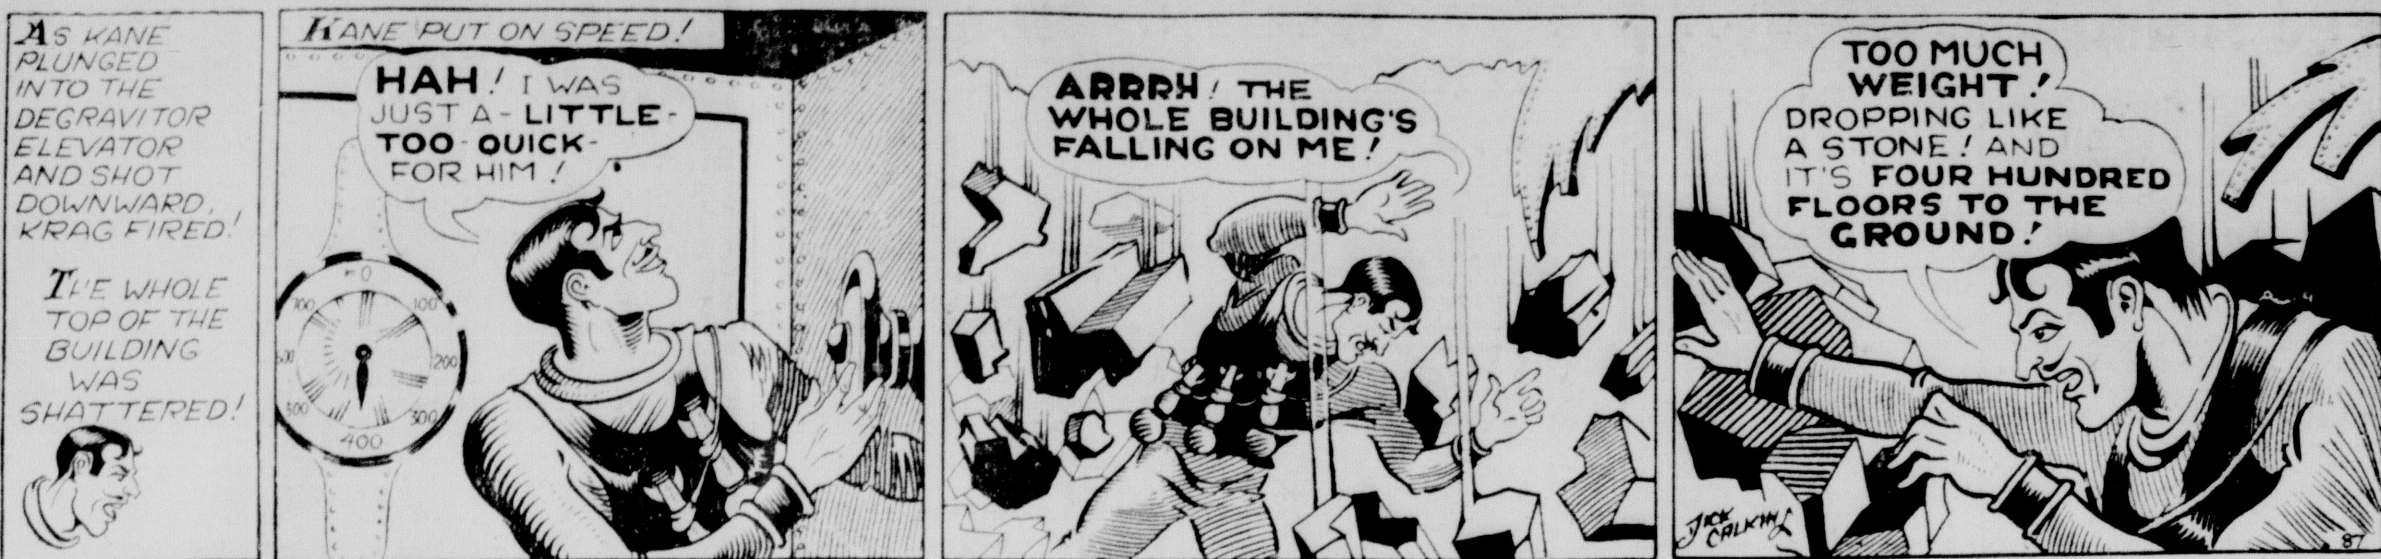

ALTHOUGH the dinosaurs varied greatly in many respects, they shared certain anatomical characteristics which place them all together in one great order. In size, they varied from the size of a rabbit to almost 100 feet in length. Some were carnivorous, others vegetarians; some had hundreds of teeth, while others were toothless. Some walked on all fours, while others were upright.
